

January 2008 Parent Newsletter

Students of the Month

Kaio Uhing, Kassidy Rixstine, Zoie Smetter, Ken Stratton, Dakotah Duer, Taylor Majerus, Heather Post, and Tyler Hackbart1 were selected as the December Students of the Month. A male and female were chosen from each class based on academics, school involvement, and character.

NGD System

The school district has purchased an alert system that will allow you to be called, emailed, and/or text messaged important news related to school closings and happenings. There will be more information to follow.

Course Offering Study

The staff has been discussing course offerings and instructional units at Seward High School compared to those of other area schools, along with the number of staff in each department. We are trying to ensure that we are giving our students opportunities and skills to be successful in the 21st century. Some of our findings were shared in a recent news article in the Seward County Independent.

Booster Club

Stadium seats and Bluejay apparel will continue to be sold at home activities. A winter meal will be served on Friday, January 18th during the basketball games. A donation will be accepted. The next meeting is Monday, January 28th @ 7pm in the west cafeteria of the high school. The guest speaker is Jim Tenopir, Executive Director of the NSAA.

P/T Conferences

The next scheduled conferences are Monday, February 4th @ 6:30pm at the high school.

Professionally,

Chad Denker

Go Bluejays!
